WELCOME

Dear Team Leader,

Welcome to the 2019 World Para Alpine Skiing Championships.

Kranjska Gora and Sella Nevea are cities with a long tradition of organising Para alpine skiing competitions and when they join forces we can only expect exciting events.

It is the first time two cities host the same edition of the World Championships.

Italy hosted the last competition in Tarvisio 2017 and it is great to have Slovenia co-organising the season's most important event.

We expect around 140 athletes from 35 nations to participate in the 2019 World Championships.

The competition will start in Kranjska Gora for the other 12 technical events before it moves to Sella Nevea with 18 speed events. In this guide you will find the information you need to know about the competition, the venues, classification, transport, accommodation and all the relevant areas.

This is the first major Para alpine skiing competition after the PyeongChang 2018 Paralympic Winter Games where I had the chance to witness extraordinary performances from both experienced and young skiers.

I am sure those in Italy and Slovenia will have the same feeling I had in Korea when they watch the best athletes in world in action.

I would like to thank both Local Organising Committees for their work supporting World Para Alpine Skiing to deliver the championships.

Best of luck to all the competing athletes and teams.

Thank you,

Andrew Parsons

President

International Paralympic Committee

The honorary patron of the World Para Alpine Skiing Championships 2019 Kranjska Gora / Sella Nevea is the President of the Republic of Slovenia Borut Pahor.

WELCOME

Dear Team Leader,

Welcome to the 2019 World Para Alpine Skiing Championships.

After Tarvisio's 2017 Para Alpine World Championship, which marked for many reasons the standard of organisation never achieved before, we have been asked, once again, to prepare an extraordinary competition.

It is the first time that a World Championship is organized on a border territory, crossing the border between two states, Slovenia and Italy. Not only has this taken an important significance for the athletes, because they will have the opportunity to ski in two locations of great prestige, but also for the impact of a "borderless" competition.

And once again, the Paralympic World becomes the precursor of these values.

For its central position in Europe, the diversity of the unique landscapes that coexist in such a small area, our region offers its guests a great opportunity for tourism. The national team will feel the homely atmosphere of these World Championships, also thanks to the welcoming attitude of our people.

As usual, school kids will cheer for them and try to collect some autographs of athletes who perhaps they do not know but, nevertheless, admire as if they were idols.

First of all I would like to thank all the Sport X All staff who, with determination, constancy and mission collaborates in a voluntary way to organize this and many other events aimed at those who love sports.

I would like to thank the public institutions that supported us through their patronage, the IPC for the trust granted.

I extend a warm welcome to all the teams that will compete in the snows of Sella Nevea and I wish the athletes to compete better by touching and exceeding their limits to return to their nations enriched with an important experience both competitive and human.

Welcome!

Paolo Tavian

President

KRANJSKA GORA

GREEN, ACTIVE, HEALTHY – CITY WITH THE MOST World cups!

Kranjska Gora is renowned worldwide for its international sports events, such as the Vitranc Cup – Alpine Skiing World Cup, Alpine skiing for the Ski Jumping World Cup and Cross Country World Cup Planica. The Nordic Centre Planica is an exceptional environment for continuing the Slovenian tradition of sky jumping and flying, as well as for cross-country training and competing. The biggest ski flying hill in the world – the most spectacular zipline in the world! You can experience it in Planica.

Kranjska Gora is a renowned resort, embraced by the Julian Alps, offering entertainment, sport and recreation throughout the year. The picturesque Kranjska Gora lies in the immediate vicinity of the three borders between Slovenia, Austria and Italy. Due to its altitude (810 m above sea level), fresh mountain air and numerous sunny days it has been known since the antique times as the unique climate health resort. Two events contributed to the development of Kranjska Gora from a herdmen's settlement in the 14th century to today's cosmopolitan Alpine village. The first turning point was the construction of the road through the Vršič mountain pass and the subsequent strategic importance of Kranjska Gora. The second turning point was the construction of the railway and the subsequent construction of the Planica ski jump.

All athletes, coaches, family and friends will stay at the Championship hotels located in walking center of city center and walking distance to the training slope; and walking distance to i.e. evening ceremonies, TC meetings, etc. and downtown (i.e. shopping, restaurants, etc.). An accommodation package including accommodation, meal plan, and other benefits will be shared with the Teams.

SELLA NEVEA

Sella Nevea is located in the valley between Monte Canin and the Jôf of Montasio. This area is known as the "glacier" of the Friuli Venezia Giulia. The reason is that this is traditionally the ski resort in the region that enjoys the longest season, giving ski lovers the opportunity to enjoy downhill skiing even in the first weekends of spring time! The total ski area between Italy to Slovenia measures 15 km and gives the opportunity to test skiers of every level. Another tradition in this resort is thrilling off-slope skiing, providing an extra challenge for visitors. Since 2007/2008, Sella Nevea has been a host resort for professional skiers as the venue of the FIS Training Centre. It has staged both able-bodied and Para competitions including World Cups, Europa Cups and FIS competitions.

Facilities

Its 17 slopes cover 15km of skiing area and range from altitudes of 1,103m to 2,133m above sea level. Other facilities include a swimming pool, indoor rock climbing, ice rink and fitness centre.

In addition, Sella Nevea is a mountain resort surrounded by uncontaminated nature; it is paradise on earth for all those who love the natural environment. It is no coincidence that the resort is often chosen as a base for mountaineering expeditions. People who really love winter sports and the great outdoors, will undoubtedly find in Sella Nevea their ideal and idyllic resort!
